QUALIFICATION GAINED IN DESIGN

Having built the original co-operative & central storage complex back in 1978 for Arable Crop it was ideal when the merger with Camgrain occurred in 2012 for T H WHITE Projects to be selected and involved in the site upgrade and refurbishment programme entered in to by Camgrain. Investment saw the design and construction of a new 20,000 tonne bulk storage facility complete with a dedicated intake system and distribution arrangement in support of the accreditation as an organic crop processor.
